LARC is now a 501 (c) (3) non-Profit organization!

Early in September 2014 LARC finally received the long awaited 501 (c) (3) status. The efforts of those involved in the process have paid off. It was a long process that had a lot discussion at board meetings, breakfasts, and on the phone. This has been a few years in the making and is now ours to use. You will be hearing more about how it is going to be used as time goes by. Please check the blog for updates.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c) (3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c) (3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,

Director, Exempt Organizations

Letter 947

What benefit does being 501(c)(3) offer our nonprofit and its contributors?

One of the primary benefits of being tax-exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) is the ability to accept contributions and donations that are tax-deductible to the donor. Additional benefits include, but are not limited to:

- * Exemption from federal and/or state corporate income taxes

- * Ability to apply for grants and other public or private allocations available only to IRS-recognized, 501(c)(3) organizations

There are four types of activities that can jeopardize your 501(c)(3)'s tax-exempt status:

Private benefit / inurement,

Lobbying,

Political activity, and

Excessive unrelated business income(UBI).

Now more stuff.
